

Sustainability in Coffee Production: Creating Shared Value Chains in Colombia

Contents

Acronyms, abbreviations and definitions	vii
Weights and measures	ix
List of figures and tables	xi
Foreword: shared value from coffee	xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xix
1 Why Creating Shared Value?	1
2 The world's beverage of choice	10
Redefining the coffee sector 12
3 The shared C in coffee and Colombia: complexity	18
Price volatility 22
Ageing factors of production 24
Falling productivity 27
Climate change: making the already variable even more unpredictable 37
Succession: where will the new farmers come from? 39
Women 46
Colombia's coffee architecture 49
Peace wears yellow 53
The International Coffee Agreement, the quota system and the crisis that followed 55
Half full cups 58
The promises of a national policy for rural development 60
4 Nestlé in Colombia	63
Sharing value locally 64
Human capital 66

Quality archetypes	70
The coffee roads	73
Reducing footprints	76
Stability anchors	79
Agents of change	84
Sustainability is a global effort	87
5 From farm to cup: the Nescafé Plan	93
Partnerships	95
The record in Colombia	99
6 Quality, productivity and sustainability: the AAA Sustainable Quality™ Program	103
Commitments	106
Moving towards 100 per cent sustainable coffee sourcing	108
From farm to landfill? What is happening to the capsules	109
Carbon off and in setting	112
The sustainability continuum	113
The record	116
Picking friends	118
Assessing sustainability	121
7 Lessons learned: future challenges and opportunities	128
Local partnerships that work	130
Changing generational paradigms	132
At the core of competitiveness: relevant technical assistance	134
Capacity building	143
Sharing the spotlight between farmers and consumers	147
From activities to objectives and from transactions to interactions	150
Puzzling implications of human capital creation	153
8 Further thoughts	155
Postscript	168
Epilogue	173
Bibliography	181
Index	201