

World Water Forum, Marseille

Wednesday morning, March 14, 2012, 08.30-10.30

SPECIAL SESSION ON FUTURE OF WORLD'S WATER IN 2025 AND BEYOND

Convening organisations: Third World Centre for Water Management, Mexico; Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore; Middle East Technical University, Ankara; and International Water Resources Association.

Chairs (by alphabetical order): Prof. Dogan Altinbilek, Professor, Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey and Prof. Asit K. Biswas, Founder, Third World Centre for Water Management, Mexico, and Distinguished Visiting Professor, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore.

- Introduction to the session, by Prof. Dogan Altinbilek
- Future of World's Water Beyond 2025: Challenges and Potential, by Prof. Asit K. Biswas

Panel of Eminent Persons

Moderator: Asit K. Biswas

- José Lopez, Executive Vice President, Nestlé, Vevey, Switzerland
- Gretchen McClain, President and CEO, Xylem, White Plains, USA
- Men Leong Chew, Chief Executive, Public Utilities Board, Singapore
- Bill Egbe, Chief Sustainability Officer, Coca-Cola
- Anthony Cox, Head, Environment and Economy Integration Division, Organisation of Economic Cooperation and Development, Paris, France
- Antoine Frerot, CEO, Veolia, France

- Summing up of the Panel Discussion and future follow-up actions, by Prof. Asit K. Biswas
- Concluding remarks and closing of the session, by Prof. Dogan Altinbilek

Total time: 2 hours